Judge's Comments: The judges loved this piece not only because it looks like it was an absolute blast to produce, but because it's a simple idea that breathes new life into an app we all probably already have on our phones. It's well-crafted from concept to cinematography to casting to post-production. The judges never got tired of watching it, and it's the one they wish they had thought of!

Judge: Patrick Burke, Ogilvy Mather

Judge's Comments: The invitation is a simple and fun idea that was very well executed with incredible attention to details, including the overall design, writing and icons. It's quite perfect! Although I'm not a golfer, I would attend this event just to meet and hang out with the designers.
